

Cllaroo Pigment Ltd. Safety Instructions

This product has been carefully checked and pass gamma ray sterilization and to the best of our knowledge, the information presented here is correct; However, we accept no responsibility for implementing the product. Checking whether recommendations have been correctly implemented is outside our control and this is the responsibility of the user and user assumes all responsibility for implementing the product. Any liability on our part whatsoever is hereby expressly excluded. Please read the following important information before use.

Ingredients we use: Aqua, isopropyl Alcohol, glycerin, propylene glycol, INCL (+/-): 77499, 77891, 77491, 77492, 77288. No animal testing and free from any animal derived ingredients.

Utilization: The color pigments are embedded into the upper skin layers with the aid of a pigmentation needle and or pigmentation device and or any other method or system and can be used for: eyebrows, eye liner, lips, hair simulation, tattoos, areola and nipple reconstruction.

Hazards and Risks: If there are any chance that you are suffering from one of these issues, you should consult a doctor and get his written approval before using this product: Herpes, HIV positive, Hemophilia, Hepatitis A, B, C, D, F, Diabetes II, Epilepsy, Keloid formation, inflammation and infection, Allergies, Pregnancy, Immune system disorders, Skin anomalies , Use of anticoagulant or blood thinning products, Use of specific medications, or any other skin sensitivity.

Stop the Treatment: If you feel one of the following you should stop immediately the treatment and consult your doctor: discomfort pain, discharge of wound liquid, feeling of losing consciousness, feeling of having dizziness, or any other inconvenience.

Cllaroo pigments: As with any product, allergic reaction can occur, please test on a hidden body part before use, wait few days to ensure that no allergic reactions occur. Be sure that the treatments is done only by micropigmentation trained medical personnel.

Instructions of use:

- Do not use this product if you are sensitive to any of its ingredients.
- Read Instructions before use.
- Shake well before use.
- After opening, use within one year.
- Keep away from your eyes, nostril, and mouth.
- Keep away from children.
- Do not mix the product with any other liquids.
- Always store in a cool and dark place (18°C-22°C).

Risks

- Be aware that this color may be remain in your skin permanently and can't be removed.
- In some cases, this color may be fade away uniformly or not uniformly or even completely disappear.
- As with any product, allergic reaction can occur, please consult your doctor before use.
- Please use nylon cover during application as this color cannot be removed.

Important information

In some cases, the use of this product can cause allergic reactions in people with a certain sensitivity, and Cllaroo assumes no responsibility for allergic reactions of individual persons. Cllaroo assumes no liability for the outcome of attempts to remove the colors with any application or method whatsoever.